11th Annual John Hemphill Dinner

---

*Four Seasons Hotel Ballroom
Austin, Texas*

*Friday
June 2, 2006*

The annual John Hemphill dinner will be dedicated to the former justice Will R. Wilson Sr. who passed away last year. The Society has invited a distinguished speaker and is waiting confirmation. The evening will begin with a host bar reception at 6:30 pm in the ballroom. Dinner will start at 7:30 pm. Society president, Judge James A. Baker, will preside over the program that begins with Chief Justice Wallace B. Jefferson introducing the newest member on the Texas Supreme Court, Justice Don Willett.

Members of the Supreme Court of Texas and their spouses are invited as guests of the Society. The dinner is named in honor of the first chief justice of the Supreme Court for the State of Texas, John Hemphill (1840-1858), and is the once-a-year opportunity to raise money for the Society and its goals to preserve the history of the Supreme Court and educate the public about the Texas judiciary.

Dinner dress will be business attire.

Individual tickets may be purchased for $120 each, $66 of which is tax deductible.

Tickets should be purchased on or before Thursday, May 25, 2006. Please provide the name of each guest and a phone number where you may be reached.

Tickets and Information: contact the TSCHS office at (512) 481-1840.
