SB 293 — Judicial Compensation, Judicial Discipline by SCJC, & Judicial Transparency

- Judicial misconduct definition: Amends "wilful or persistent conduct that is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of a judge's duties" in Tex. Gov't Code §33.001(b) to include:
 - (1) "wilful, persistent, and unjustifiable failure to timely execute the business of the court, considering the quantity and complexity of the business, including failure to meet deadlines, performance measures or standards, or clearance rate requirements set by statute, administrative rule, or binding court order."

SB 293 — Judicial Compensation, Judicial Discipline by SCJC, & Judicial Transparency

- Appellate court remote proceedings: Absent exigent circumstances, an appellate court must participate in oral argument presented through teleconferencing technology from a courtroom or other state-provided facility.
- Summary judgment procedures: Trial courts must hear MSJ (via oral argument or written submission) within 45 days after a response is filed and provide a written ruling with 90 days after submission or argument. Compliance with the deadlines must be reported to OCA on a quarterly basis. ++

SJR 27 – Proposed Constitutional Amendment SCJC & Judicial Discipline

- Amends Texas Constitution and changes composition of SCJC:
 - Six court judges/justices appointed by SCOTX (two must be trial court judges) with Senate approval.
 - Seven citizens appointed by Governor with Senate approval who are at least 35 years of age.

SJR 27 – Proposed Constitutional Amendment SCJC & Judicial Discipline

- Limits SCJC authority to issue private admonitions, warnings, or reprimands to only judges/justices who haven't been the subject of a previous order and doesn't involve a complaint/report alleging conduct constituting a criminal offense.
- Authorizes SCJC to recommend suspension for judicial misconduct and that a judge/justice be suspended without pay for a specific period under certain circumstances.

- Creates new courts (13 district, 1 CCL, and 1 probate court), designates court preferences, and modifies the concurrent jurisdictions of various county courts at law in multiple jurisdictions.
- Increases the maximum amount-in-controversy for certain county courts at law from $250,000 to $325,000.

- Prohibits filing of a NOA in a civil case that requests assignment of the appeal to the Fifteenth Court of Appeals unless the notice includes a matter arising out of/related to a case within the court's exclusive intermediate appellate jurisdiction.
- Creates places for two additional justices on the Fifteenth Court of Appeals, one of which would be filled for the fourth year following the court's creation (2028) and the other filled during the fifth year following the court's creation (2029).

- Summary judgment procedures: Trial courts must hear MSJ (via oral argument or written submission) no later than: (1) 60 days after the motion is filed, or (2) 90 days after the motion is filed (a) if the court's docket requires a hearing on a date later than the 60th day after the motion is filed, (b) on a showing of good cause, or (c) if the movant consents.
 - Applies to MSJs filed on or after effective date
 - Deadlines will not apply to withdrawn motions
- Business Court: Bastrop County is moved to the Third Division

• Supreme Court rulemaking: Amends the Government Code to provide that all laws and parts of laws governing practice and procedure in civil actions enacted before May 15, 1939, are repealed, except that no laws or parts of laws are superseded until SCOTX adopts a rule that governs the subject matter of the law or part of a law; however, no substantive laws are repealed.

• Effective date: 91st day after the session ends (Dec. 4, 2025)

SB 29 – Business Organizations Code

- Allows governing documents to (1) specify that Texas courts will be the exclusive forum and venue for internal disputes, and (2) contain an enforceable jury trial waiver concerning internal disputes.
- Authorizes a corporation to (1) form a committee of independent and disinterested directors to review/approve transactions, and (2) petition a court with jurisdiction to hold an evidentiary hearing to determine whether the appointed directors are independent and disinterested. Court must hold a preliminary hearing within 10 days after notice to shareholders to determine appropriate legal counsel and to promptly hold the hearing.

SB 29 – Business Organizations Code

- Codifies the "business judgment rule" and establishes a presumption that directors and officers act in good faith in furtherance of the corporation's interests and according to law.
- Allows governing documents to establish a new threshold for shareholder actions (3% minimum).
- Allows governing documents to specify that books and records can be inspected only by shareholders: (1) who own 5% or more of outstanding shares, or (2) who have owned their shares for at least six months.
- Effective date: May 14, 2025

HB 40 - Business Court

- Expands definition of "qualified transaction" to include a series of related transactions applying to one or more parties and reduces minimum consideration value for qualified transactions from $10 million to $5 million.
- Adds to court's jurisdiction actions:
 - Arising or related to intellectual property and trade secrets.
 - To enforce an arbitration agreement or review an arbitral award involving an amount over $5 million.
 - MDL pretrial matters it the court otherwise has jurisdiction.
- Reduces amount-in-controversy threshold from $10 to $5 million for non-corporate governance-related claims (e.g., breach of contract).

HB 40 - Business Court

- Provides that actions commenced before 9/1/24 that are within the business court's jurisdiction may be transferred to and heard by the court on an agreed motion and the BC judge's permission.
- Revises the 30-day removal timeline provisions to include service of process as a triggering event for a party to seek removal.
- SCOTX to adopt rules relating to jurisdictional determinations.
- Removes sunset provisions for the unfunded Second, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Ninth, and Tenth Divisions, and moves Montgomery County to the Eleventh Division.
- Changes apply to civil actions commenced on or after September 1, 2024.

- Requests to seal party's own trade secrets: File sealing notice and an affidavit that (1) describes the type of information contained in the document; (2) provides contact information for subsequent notice of any motion to unseal; and (3) states the factual basis for the party's allegation that the info constitutes a trade secret.
- Deliver a copy of the document to be sealed to the trial court in a sealed envelope labeled to identify the corresponding sealing notice and serve a copy of the notice, affidavit, and document on each party to the action.

- Filings that include trade secrets claimed by another party: Filing party must: (1) file a sealing notice and a statement generally describing the type of information contained in the document and identifying the person who claims the document includes the trade secret; (2) deliver a copy of the document to be sealed to the trial court in a sealed envelope labeled to identify the corresponding sealing notice; and (3) serve a copy of the notice, statement, and document on each other party to the action and any non-party who alleges the document contains the person's trade secret.
- No later than the 14th day after the date a person who alleges a document contains the trade secret receives a sealing notice, the person must file in the same cause an affidavit: (1) generally describing the type of information in the document; (2) providing contact information for subsequent notices of any motion to unseal the document; and (3) stating the factual basis for the allegation that the information in the document constitutes a trade secret.

- If the trial court receives the notice, statement, and sealed document, the document must be treated as filed under seal until the time for filing an affidavit expires and, if no affidavit is timely filed, the document will be treated as publicly filed until an affidavit is filed.
- Once the trial court receives a notice, affidavit, and sealed document, the document is treated as permanently filed under seal. At any time before or after judgment, any person may intervene in a trade secrets-related action to seal or unseal a document. If a person alleges the person's trade secret was filed of public record, the person could seal the document containing the alleged trade secret by taking the same actions with respect to the document that a party to an action is authorized to take with respect to the party's alleged trade secret.

- Any person may move to unseal any sealed document. The motion and notice of hearing must be served on the parties to the action in which the document was filed, and on the person who submitted an affidavit by CMRRR by the 14th day before any hearing on the motion.
- The trial court must grant the motion and unseal all or part of the document if the person who claims the document contains the trade secrets fails to demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that all or part of the document contains a trade secret. If trial court determines that only a part of the document should be unsealed, the trial court must redact all information containing a trade secret before providing the document to the movant.
- Orders granting or denying a motion to unseal a document are considered to be severed and are final appealable judgments.
